SCHOLARSHIP ESSAYS

To be considered for a LIU Global merit scholarship, you must submit a completed application form accompanied by your responses to the short answer and essay questions listed below. This is your opportunity to provide LIU Global with a glimpse of you in a way that grades and test scores cannot. Include your name, date of birth, and the topic you select at the top of each additional sheet you submit.

Completed applications can be emailed to global@liu.edu or mailed to:

1. Essay I – International & Intercultural Experience: please describe your travel experience within the United States and abroad (including country, length of stay, purpose for being there, and what you took away from the experience) and your experience (if any) with study abroad, cross-cultural, exchange, or homestay programs during your high school career (including name of program, country, length of stay, purpose for being there, and what you took away from the experience).

2. Essay II: Choose one of the following topics, and respond in a short (250-500 word) essay.
   - Global Citizenship – Define global citizenship. As an aspiring world citizen, how would your LIU Global education assist you in developing a broad worldview and cultivate global sensitivity?
   - Global Issues – Identify what you believe to be the most urgent contemporary human problems. How do you think a LIU Global education might help you with a plan of action in addressing these issues?
   - Global Education – What does it mean to have a cross-cultural perspective? How do you think a LIU Global education would help you to develop this perspective?
