

GRADUATE PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

BROOKLYN CAMPUS

Overview of Graduate Programs

When you enroll at Long Island University's Brooklyn Campus, you will become part of a diverse community of caring, dedicated and motivated individuals who teach and learn in an environment that promotes growth, creativity and respect — a place where everyone works together and strives to learn from one another.

Our graduate programs seek to provide students with the opportunity to work with faculty members in formal courses, in seminars and on research projects that encourage sound independent thought and the maximum development of each student's intellectual capacities. Courses are designed to help students acquire and to refine professional skills, as well as to increase their appreciation and understanding of cultural values.

Graduate classes meet primarily in the late afternoon and evening, with some courses offered on weekends. A year-round schedule, including two six-week summer sessions is offered. Approximately 2,700 graduate students attend programs at the Brooklyn Campus.

Listed here are the nearly 90 graduate degrees and programs offered at the Brooklyn Campus. If you have questions or want to know more about any of these offerings, we invite you to contact the Office of Admissions or the program chairs and directors listed on the following pages.

You also can explore the Brooklyn Campus at our Web site, www.liu.edu/brooklyn.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS, PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND INFORMATION SCIENCES

If you want to be a player in today's global economy, serve as a government administrator, become a computer specialist, or run a business, you'll find the course of study and tools needed to reach your goals in the School of Business, Public Administration and Information Sciences. The School offers a comprehensive curriculum and the hands-on learning experience you'll need to compete and succeed in today's rapidly evolving job market. Classes are taught by faculty members who are experts in their fields with extensive practical backgrounds and experience. The School offers the following programs:

M.B.A. (Master's of Business Administration)

Our M.B.A. program is designed for the working professional who wishes to attend evening and weekend classes while pursuing a career. Concentrations are available in finance, international business, management, management information systems and marketing.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

Whether your interest lies in working in a hospital setting, a clinic or the community, the School of Nursing offers programs that help individuals to develop the skills required to be caring and effective health care professionals. What began as a bachelor's degree program for registered nurses in 1955, has become a multifaceted school offering a wide range of undergraduate and graduate options. The School of Nursing is exceptionally well positioned to fill the need for nursing professionals in the growing areas of health promotion; home care of the acute, long-term and chronically ill; and community health.

The School offers programs to prepare both the entry-level and established practitioner.

B.S./M.S. in Nursing/Adult Nurse Practitioner

B.S./M.S. in Nursing/Executive Program for Nursing and Health Care Management

For licensed registered nurses with an associate degree who wish to fulfill career goals by combining the bachelor's and master's degree with a major in nursing. Each program is 160-credits and leads to a B.S./M.S. with a major in nursing in either Nurse Practitioner or Nurse Executive track.

Director, Dr. Hazel Sanderson, Ed.D, B.N. • (718) 488-1511 • hazel.sanderson@liu.edu

M.S. in Adult Nurse Practitioner • M.S. in Family Nurse Practitioner

M.S. in Geriatric Nurse Practitioner

Advanced Certificate In Adult Nurse Practitioner (Post Master's) • Advanced Certificate In Family Nurse Practitioner (Post Master's)

Advanced Certificate In Geriatric Nurse Practitioner (Post Master's)

These degrees prepare the baccalaureate-degree nurse to become certified as a nurse practitioner in Adult, Family or Geriatric primary care. Graduates are eligible for New York State certification and are prepared to sit for national certification exams. Registered nurses with non-nursing baccalaureate degrees may be able to qualify for entrance to the graduate program by validation of knowledge through required tests. The programs are approved by the New York State Education Department and fully accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).

M.S. in Nurse Educator • Advanced Certificate Nurse Educator (both offered in blended format)

The M.S. in Nurse Educator Program is a 36-credit program presented in a blended onlinelearning format that provides the baccalaureate graduate with a strong foundation in the knowledge and skills needed for a position in academic teaching or staff development: curriculum development, theories of teaching and learning, teaching methodologies, use of stimulation and testing and outcomes measurements.”

Director, Susanne Flower, M.S., R.N., Geriatric/Adult Nurse Practitioner • (718) 780-4589 • susanne.flower@liu.edu

M.S. in Executive Program for Nursing and Health Care Management

Designed to prepare nurse executives to assume positions of leadership in a changing health care environment, the program combines advanced topics and internships in nursing management with courses offered through the Brooklyn Campus School of Business, Public Administration, and Information Sciences.

Director, Erlinda Dubal, M.A., M.B.A., R.N. • (718) 780-4127 • erlinda.dubal@liu.edu

ARNOLD & MARIE SCHWARTZ COLLEGE OF PHARMACY AND HEALTH SCIENCES

The Arnold & Marie Schwartz College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences offers a tradition of excellence that is difficult to match. This year it celebrates 125 years of service to the state and the nation in the education of more than 20,000 undergraduate and graduate pharmacy students. Psychological Services

The Long Island University Psychological Services Center provides free and confidential personal counseling to students and support staff of the Campus. All services are provided by doctoral candidates in the Clinical Psychology Program who are supervised by licensed psychologists. All services are free for students and Campus support staff. To make an appointment, stop in or call 718-488-1266.

Student Financial Services

The Office of Student Financial Services is located at the 3rd floor of the Metcalfe Building. Through an integrated mix of personal and online services, Student Financial Services supports students in managing all aspects of financing their education.

- To obtain financial aid, scholarships, grants and deadlines information you can speak with a counselor by visiting the Office or use resources available at our Web site: www.liu.edu/brooklyn/financialservices
- To obtain information about schedule of tuition and fees, account balance, payment plans and deadlines you can talk to counselor or visit the Bursar's Web site: www.liu.edu/brooklyn/bursar. If you have additional questions contact the Bursar's Office at 718-488-1038.

Student Health Insurance

Starting with the 2010-11 academic year, Long Island University has partnered with Aetna Student Health to develop a benefit plan that provides our students with more robust medical coverage at school, back home and while traveling or studying abroad. This new plan offers students and their dependents access to Aetna's nationwide network of doctors, hospitals and pharmacies throughout the country; benefit maximums of $50,000 per condition per policy year; no annual deductibles; and coverage for pre-existing conditions.

Plan enhancements include:

- annual routine physical exams
- expanded coverage for State-mandated vaccinations, prescription drugs, emergency room, laboratory, surgical and x-ray expenses
- travel assistance services with world-wide medical coverage while traveling or studying abroad.

The Aetna plan is available to any and all students enrolled and registered in degree-granting programs at Long Island University. Students participating in programs at the Campus that require foreign travel are mandated to enroll in the plan, even if they have comparable coverage. All international students, clinical students, residential students and intercollegiate athletes are automatically enrolled in the plan but can waive participation online if they have comparable coverage under a family plan or other policy. All remaining students are not automatically enrolled, but are eligible to purchase the same plan on a voluntary basis for the entire policy year. Students who enter during the spring and summer terms also can participate in the plan with shorter coverage periods, reduced rates and specific enrollment/waiver deadlines. Visit the Student Health Insurance Web site at: www.liu.edu/studenthealthinsurance.

My LIU

My LIU is the University's student portal that provides access to several enrollment services offices. After your initial course registration you will be able to activate your account, you will be able to check your bill, review your course registration and access email and academic resources such as the Blackboard System.

Keep in mind, that as an enrolled continuing student most of the business/communication you will conduct with the University will be done through My LIU.

Through the University's My LIU portal, you can execute the following financial services-related actions:

- View your current account balance and billing history
- Pay your bill by credit card or by check
- Set up an authorized user account so that a relative, a guardian, or an employer can pay an outstanding balance on your behalf
- View your payment history and all refunds that have been processed
- View bursar-related holds on your account
- Waive compulsory health insurance
- View your financial aid information
- View a list of "to do" items, that reflects documents that need to be submitted and actions that need to be taken to ensure your enrollment or continued enrollment

Information Technology

Information Technology offers solutions and technological support for students, faculty members and administrators. You can rent laptops or access Internet and e-mail accounts on personal computers by visiting the Information Technology Office at Library Learning Center Room 227 from Monday to Friday between 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Library

The Brooklyn Campus Library is located on the 3rd floor of the Salena Library Learning Center. The Library has over 100 research and Internet computer terminals and contains a collection of over 265,000 books, 1,400 varied titles, 8,700 videos, 32,000 e-books and access to frequently used databases. Additionally, students have access to the University's 2.6-million-volume, multicampus library system.

The Library is a member of the Academic Libraries of Brooklyn, so you can extend your borrowing privileges to other member institutions, such as Brooklyn College, New York City College of Technology, NYU-Polytechnic, Pratt Institute, St. Francis College and St. Joseph's College. Visit the Library Web site at www.liu.edu/brooklyn/library.

Wellness, Recreation and Athletic Center (WRAC)

The WRAC is a central hub for students' activities and athletic events; it is the home of the Brooklyn Campus' NCAA Division I Blackbirds. The WRAC features a 2,500-seat arena, an NCAA regulation-size swimming pool, a state-of-the-art fitness center and weight room. In addition, students have access to two tennis courts and a running track located on roof of the building. The fitness center, pool, tennis courts and track are FREE to students of the Brooklyn Campus.

Hours of Operation*:	Monday-Thursday	7 a.m.-10 p.m.
	Friday	7 a.m.-7 p.m.
	Saturday	8 a.m.-4 p.m.

*Hours may vary due to schedule of athletic events.

Career Services

The Office of Career Services is located in the Pratt Building, room 510, and offers a range of career planning services to graduate students in all disciplines. Counselors are available to assist students with researching, and in preparing for and securing work opportunities while in school and upon graduation. Our services include:

- Résumé/Curriculum Vitae Preparation: Have your résumé/CV critiqued to ensure that your skills, knowledge and abilities are highlighted so you stand out from the competition.
- Letter Preparation: Fine tune your cover letters, thank you letters and letters of inquiries.
- Mock Interviews: Hone your interview skills and gain confidence as you participate in an interview featuring industry/position-specific and behavioral-based questions and receive feedback from your counselor.
- Job Search Planning: Develop strategies to enable you to conduct a comprehensive and productive job search using a variety of sources.
- Alumni Mentor Program: Connect with alumni who have volunteered to share their experiences in your field of interest.
- Workshops, Events and Panels: Attend Career Fairs, career-related workshops and other events to network with seasoned professionals and meet employers.
- Job Bank: Register for MyCareerKey, the Campus' career/management/job bank system, to search for part-time and full-time opportunities; apply to positions and learn about career-related events and programs on- and off-campus. Log in at: <https://mycareerkey.brooklyn.liu.edu/liu-brooklyn/student/>

Writing Center

The Writing Center is located on the 2nd floor of the Humanities Building in room 218C. Staff and tutors assist students from all majors and writing levels with the development of their writing skills. During the academic year, the Brooklyn Campus Writing Center is open during the following hours:

Monday -Thursday: 9 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Friday: 9 a.m - 5 p.m.

Saturday: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Graduate Student Housing

Graduate students can apply for residence hall space in the Hoyt Residence Hall. New students requesting to live in the Residence Hall must fill out a housing application. THIS IS SEPARATE from the application to attend the Campus. You may download the housing application online or pick up an application at the Office of Residence Life located at the 2nd floor of Conolly Residence Hall.

Visit the Residence Life Web site at www.liu.edu/brooklyn/housing/application or call 718-488-1046 for more information.

Dining Facilities/Dining Membership Choices

The Brooklyn Campus has two cafeterias: Blackbird Café located on the 1st floor of Conolly Residence Hall and Luntney Commons, located in the Metcalfe Hall and Quiznos, located at Triangle Theater. The Brooklyn Grind Coffee Shop is located on the 3rd floor of the Humanities Building.

Dining Dollars (DD's) can be used in all of our dining service locations. The DD system works like an ATM or debit card to purchase beverages, snacks or full meals. Whatever you purchase is deducted from your DD balance. Money can be added to accounts at any time during the semester.

Family University After School and Evening Program (FUN)

FUN offers after-school care for children of currently enrolled students. Participants in FUN must be in the 1st-7th grade and must meet the family financial eligibility requirements. For more information about the educational enrichment after school program contact Ianthe Jackson at ianthe.jackson@liu.edu, or call (718) 246-6488.
