HOMESTAY INFORMATION

New and continuing students will be assigned a host family using the information contained in this form to the best of our ability. Feel free to add any pertinent information that will help us best match your needs. It's important to underline that LIU Global Costa Rica only has a limited number of families that we use (due to great experiences with them!), but we would like to try to do our best to match the right family to each student. We will give you your host family information when you first arrive.

Have you participated in a homestay before? If yes, how did it go? Where was it? How long did you stay?

What are your initial expectations of your homestay experience in Costa Rica?

What are your main fears / concerns about staying with a homestay family?

In selecting the family that best matches you, we would like to know if you have any special preferences (regarding children or teens in the home, religion, family size or make-up, other)?

Would you consider yourself a person who prefers / needs a lot of privacy, or a person who prefers to mostly be around people?

Any information you would like us to share with the homestay family about you?
