Long Island University Student Health Insurance At-A-Glance

All students studying abroad are automatically charged $273 for health insurance (it is part of tuition and fees). Students will be automatically charged this fee. A Member ID card will be mailed to your home address (while you are studying outside the US). You can also print a paper copy of your ID card from Aetna's website at the following URL: http://www.aetnastudenthealth.com/schools/LIU, see the left hand column and click on "Print Your ID Card". Note that you can only print this ID card once you are actually enrolled in the insurance after the beginning of the semester.

Please note that capstone students studying in NY, as well as students who are doing their Independent Study semester in the U.S. are not automatically charged for health insurance. If you would like to purchase an insurance plan please contact Susi Rachouh at susan.rachouh@liu.edu or 718.780.4327.

Please note when students are abroad that one must pay out of pocket for doctor's visits, hospital stays, prescriptions, etc. Save the receipt and submit the receipt with the following information written on the bill, if there's space, or attach a separate piece of paper, if necessary: Your name, LIU ID number (which is also your Aetna Member ID number) and school name must be written on all medical bills.

The insurance includes coverage for the following:

- Physician Office Visits
- Preventative Exam Expense
- Emergency Care
- Inpatient Hospitalization
- Surgical Expenses (Inpatient & Outpatient)
- Laboratory and X-Ray Benefit
- Prescription Drug Benefits

Please note that there is no exclusion for pre-existing conditions and there is no claim form to fill out.

Travel assistance:

If a student is on a field trip and has an emergency, they can contact the 24/7 call center at 1-866-525-1956 (toll free from the U.S.) or 603-328-1956 (call collect from anywhere in the world).

Yearly Coverage Dates: August 15, 2010 through August 14, 2011

All of the above information was taken from the 2010-2011 Aetna Student Health Insurance Plan Highlights for Long Island University. To view the full plan details, you may access the following URL:

http://www.aetnastudenthealth.com/schools/liu/brochure1011.pdf