

EDWARD O'KEEFE

Edward O'Keefe is the CEO of the proposed presidential library and museum for Theodore Roosevelt in Western North Dakota. Working for 20 years in media, O'Keefe has worked for ABC News, CNN, CBS, 60 Minutes, Face the Nation, and others. He has won numerous prestigious awards including a Peabody for ABC News team coverage of 9/11 and a Primetime Emmy for work with the late Anthony Bourdain. As a Harvard Fellow, O'Keefe had substantial access to Theodore Roosevelt's personal papers, research which will be the the subject of a forthcoming book, The Loves of Theodore Roosevelt. O'Keefe will present the mission, vision and values of the Theodore Roosevelt Presidential Library & Museum to the Centenary Conference at Long Island University