

RUDY CARMENATY

Rudy Carmenaty serves as a Bureau Chief in the Office of the Nassau County Attorney, is the Director of Legal Services for the Nassau County Department of Social Services, and the Language Access Coordinator for the Nassau County Executive. In his roles, he serves as lead counsel for the Department of Social Services and Department of Human Services, advising on the legal ramifications of policies and coordinates the implementation of Nassau County's Language Access efforts.

Formerly, Rudy was a Senior Court Attorney for the Unified Court System in the Civil Court in New York City. Prior to that, he was an Associate in the corporate departments of both Roger & Wells and Brown & Wood. A member of the American Bar Association, the Long Island Hispanic Bar Association and the New York City Bar Association; he sits on the Board of Directors of the Nassau County Bar Association and is the Vice-Chair of its Diversity & Inclusion Committee.

Rudy is President of the Columbia Law School Association and a trustee of the Theodore Roosevelt Association, is a member of the Nassau County Police Reserves and is active in the Cuban-American community on Long Island. He has received citations from the US Congress, the Nassau County Executive, and the Towns of Oyster Bay & Hempstead, NY.

He earned his Juris Doctor from the Columbia Law School, where he was Administrative Editor of the Columbia-VLA Journal of Law & the Arts, and he earned a BA with Honors from Rutgers College, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He is admitted to the bars of the State of New York and the United States Supreme Court in Washington, D.C.