PROPERTY INSURANCE FOR RESIDENT STUDENT POLICY

PURPOSE

To establish insurance requirements for protection of resident student personal property.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

Long Island University does not accept responsibility for loss of or damage to a student's property while the student resides in on-campus housing.

Students residing in the residence halls are responsible for obtaining the appropriate amount of personal property insurance to cover the loss or damage of their property in the event of fire, water damage, theft, or vandalism.
