

STUDENT DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE OR MATERIAL POLICY

PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for the distribution of non-commercial material or literature.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

Students who wish to distribute non-commercial material or literature on Long Island University campuses are required to abide by the guidelines outlined in this policy.

- Literature must be approved by the Dean of Students or designee prior to circulation.
- Literature may not be distributed in academic buildings, classrooms, or other spaces where classes are being held.
- Material may not be distributed for commercial purposes without the prior approval of the Dean of Students or designee.
- Non-LIU students and organizations not recognized by Long Island University may not distribute materials or solicit Long Island University students on campus without the prior approval of the Dean of Students and Director of Public Safety.
- Literature that is libelous, obscene, may incite violence, or violate federal, state, or local laws are strictly prohibited.
- Literature distributed on campus must include the name and contact information of the student or recognized student organization.
- No student may impede the flow of pedestrians or vehicular traffic.
- No person may attempt to coerce, intimidate, or badger any other person into listening to speech or into reviewing or accepting a copy of any literature distributed.

Students who distribute literature in a manner not permitted in this policy may be considered in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

POLICY TYPE: STUDENT AFFAIRS