Full-time status must be maintained in order to move in and reside on campus throughout the semester. Health Insurance Requirement: University policy requires all resident students to have health insurance. All residents will be automatically billed for the university-sponsored health insurance plan on their bursar account. You have an opportunity to waive this charge by complying with the waiver procedures. If you wish to waive the charge, log into your MyLIU account at www.liu.edu and click on the "Student Health Insurance" link from the Student Center Home Page. If you do not waive coverage, you will be automatically enrolled in and charged for University Health Insurance. Fire, Theft, Vandalism: The University is not liable for personal items, including motor vehicles, lost or damaged by fire, theft, vandalism, water, breakage or otherwise. The University urges students to purchase tenant property insurance (Information about property insurance is available in the Office of Residence Life). The University is not liable for loss or damage to vehicles. Parking and use of vehicles on University premises is at the student's own risk. Consolidation: The University reserves the right to consolidate residents, on written notice. When vacancies are created and no waiting list for housing exists, residents who live alone in a double room will be offered the option of maintaining their location at the single room rate. If the resident declines the single room rate option, they may identify a new roommate to fill the vacant space in their room. If the resident declines the option of a single and is unable to identify a preferred roommate they will be consolidated to another double occupancy space within their building, within 10 business days of receipt of the single room rate option. Should a resident receive a notice of consolidation and fails to comply, their account will be adjusted to reflect the single rate retroactive to the date that the single room rate option was first offered. Cancellations: The $300.00 deposit is refundable until July 1st for the Fall Semester and January 1st for the Spring Semester. Students who cancel after occupancy are eligible for room refunds as listed below. There are no refunds for meal plans and meal plans are automatically cancelled when a room is cancelled.
