Housing Application & Selection

Applying for housing and selecting a room is an easy online process. Students can sign-up for housing at any time and are guaranteed the ability to live on campus for all four years.

Applying to Live on Campus

Step 1: Log-on to MyLIU

Step 2: Click on the “University Housing” icon on the right hand side then click “Apply for Housing”

Step 3: Read and agree to the terms of the Housing Agreement

Step 4: Complete your application by submitting a $300 housing deposit via e-payment at MyLIU or visiting Enrollment Services in person.

Selecting a Room

Once you sign up for housing and submit your deposit, you may select a room and roommate online. You may also take advantage of RoomSync, a social media tool designed to help you meet potential roommates.

In order to select a room, you must be a full-time enrolled student, in good financial standing, and registered for classes.

For more information on the application or selection process, visit www.liu.edu/post/campuslife.

Themed Housing

Themed housing is intentionally designed experiences centered on a variety of academic, cultural, and personal interests. Should you be interested in participating in themed housing, you can select a room in these residence halls during the room selection process.

First-Year & New Transfer Students
First-year students and new transfer students under 21 years are designated to Kings Hall and Queens Hall.

Honors College
Honors College Housing is located on 3rd floor of Post Hall for Honors College students who wish to live in a unique living-learning environment together.

Intensified Study
Suffolk Hall is a traditional-style hall designed for 24-hour intensified study for students who prefer a quiet, academic-centered environment, and graduate students.

10 Months/ Extended Stay
Nassau Hall offers the additional benefit of long-stay accommodations over winter vacation.

Graduate and Upperclassmen
South Residence Complex is an option available to students 21 years or older and graduate students. Suites consist of three or four bedrooms that surround a shared living room and share a bathroom facility.

Athletic and Greek Life
Although not assigned to a specific hall, many athletes or Greek Life members are encouraged to live with their teammates and brothers/sisters. This helps to build community in the residence hall and enhances their experience on the field or in their organization.
Be Part of a Community

Living in a residence hall is being part of a community. You will have the opportunity to take part in all of our programs and traditions offered through Campus Life, Athletics, Tilles Center, and LIU Promise. In addition to these programs, there are several opportunities offered exclusively to resident students.

Resident Student Association (RSA)
This student-led organization is the programming organization for the residence halls. RSA is led by an executive board and puts on many events each semester, including the Gold Cup inter-residence hall competition.

Hall Councils
Each residence hall has a Hall Council that plans programs and advocates for the needs of their respective residence. If you have an idea, or want to get involved in building community in your hall, contact your respective hall council.

Gold Cup Competition
The Gold Cup Competition is a series of events where residence halls compete against each other. The Gold Cup is a fun way to get involved, show your hall spirit, and prove that you live in the best residence hall at LIU! If you are interested in participating, contact your Resident Assistant (RA) or Campus Life Coordinator.

Hall Programming
Every residence hall is equipped with a staff of Resident Assistants that hold floor and building programs to build community and allow you to meet your peers. Each hall hosts between 15-30 programs every year.

For information on all on-campus events, off-campus trips, athletic games, visit the LIU Post Campus Life social media or www.liu.edu/post/campuslife.
