

Dear Faculty,

As we navigate remote teaching and learning together as a university, I would like to take a moment to thank you for your dedication and hard work. Thanks to your successful efforts, LIU is delivering 2,500 classes online.

LIU's secure learning platforms, together with the faculty's commitment to adapting in-the-classroom-curricula to virtual learning, has confirmed that we as a University can sustain a high-quality learning environment for our students. Your continued feedback is the key to fine-tuning virtual teaching and learning excellence.

In an effort to understand faculty experiences with online instruction thus far, please complete the survey questions via the below link. Your answers will aid the University in gauging needed improvements for the remainder of the semester.

Our LIU IT team (<https://it.liu.edu/>) is committed to ensuring your online teaching experience is easily accessible, secure, and high quality.

We appreciate your participation and feedback as we support you during this unprecedented time.

Sincerely,

Randy Burd
Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs
