

Dear Student,

As we navigate remote learning and online instruction together as a university, I would like to take a moment to thank you for your dedication and hard work. Your resilience and commitment to academic excellence has been inspiring. Every day I am in awe of our students.

Since LIU transitioned to online instruction last month, we have periodically asked for input regarding your experience. Your continued feedback is the key to fine-tuning online learning.

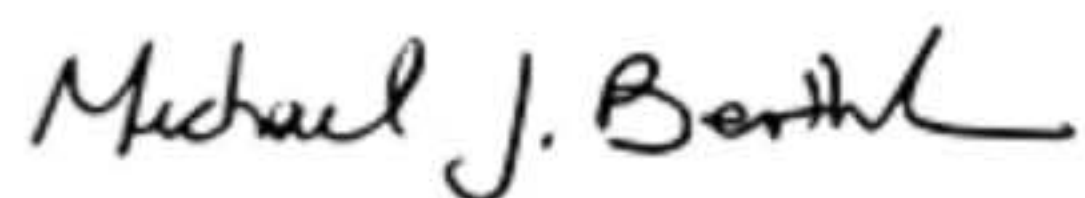

In an effort to understand student experiences with online instruction thus far, please complete the survey questions via the below link. Your answers will aid the University in gauging needed enhancements for the remainder of the semester.

We appreciate your participation and look forward to a successful remainder of the spring semester.

Sincerely,

Michael Berthel
